

Welcome to September

Featured this month: ESFB | Recruiting in the Lubricant Sector | Sales Summer Holiday

Eat Sales For Breakfast Tuesday 5th September

The holidays are behind us and it's on to an exciting quarter 3 and 4! Join us on 5th September for the next Eat Sales For Breakfast in partnership with Sheffield Chamber!
BOOK NOW, it's totally free to attend and we've a cracking session lined up!

Why should you attend?

- Great chance to network with other B2B sales professionals
- Learn and discover sales strategies from the Plan.Grow.Do. team
- Have the opportunity to ask our sales training team any questions you might have

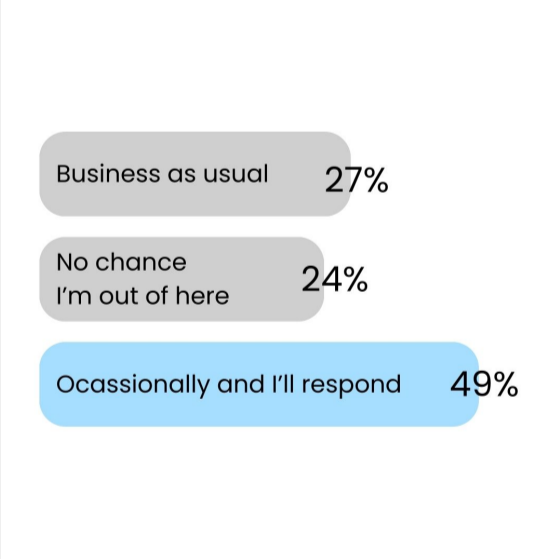

Reserve your FREE place

As Summer comes to an end we're delighted to be working on some really exciting projects for the remainder of 2023! One of those includes a hop over to Germany for the European Lubricant Expo and Bearing Show where we will be exhibiting later in the month. With that in mind it was a worthwhile revisit of Steve's conversation with James Moorhouse - Director of Lubricants and Fuel, Global from ABN Resources Ltd. on the retention problem in the lubricants industry...

Watch the full video

Sales Summer holiday behaviour?

Device on or off?

Contactable yes or no?

Interesting results from Steve's LinkedIn poll last month.

What would you do?

Leave us a comment!

Upcoming Events

Core B2B Sales Training
Businesses in the Sheffield City Region can access part funding to attend this impactful 2-day B2B sales training course.

Register your interest

Join the conversation

